Philosophy of Child Development

Each child is valued and special in the eyes of God, and therefore cherished, valued, loved and led by kind adults.

Children develop a life-long relationship with Jesus in a Christ-centered environment.

Teaching cooperation, working and playing with others, and developing empathy is an intentional focus.

Children benefit from small class sizes and personalized attention.

Teachers assist parents in the social, emotional, educational and spiritual growth of their children.

Lutheran Preschools

Growing minds and kind hearts.

Growing Minds

The ultimate goal of [school name] is to adequately prepare your children for kindergarten and set a foundation for future education. Students will enhance and refine fine motor skills while learning problem solving skills to expand logical thinking. We believe children learn best through various forms of play. Our developmental programs provide children the opportunities to use and to build upon their knowledge.

Kind Hearts

At [school name] we believe in establishing the love of Christ in each of our students to begin the establishment of a life-long relationship with Christ. We strive to teach our students the love of God so they can love one another.

Our goal is to demonstrate this through living in accordance with God's Word, encouraging and developing positive attitudes, helping each child in learning to play cooperatively with other children and encouraging each child's expression of creativity.
